Adrienne D. Weil, General Counsel Candidate

Pending Commission Approval on July 28, 2010, Adrienne Weil will be joining the MTC as an accomplished attorney with more than two decades of experience in public finance, project finance, legislation, general corporate, venture capital and debt, licensing, intellectual property portfolio management, litigation and risk management, regulatory, government contracting, real estate, employment law and mergers and acquisitions.

Adrienne spent nearly eighteen years at Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe, LLP where she was a member of the Public Finance Group and the Corporate and Technology Group. During that time she was the principal attorney on more than one hundred public finance and corporate transactions, including multi-billion dollar public works projects and creation of the largest pooled note program in the country.

Adrienne started her legal career at Sempra Energy, managing litigation. Most recently, Adrienne was General Counsel to BiPar Sciences, Inc. a venture-backed biotechnology company developing novel oncology therapies. At BiPar, Adrienne oversaw all of the company's legal affairs, and led the company's legal team in a $500 million merger with sanofi-aventis.

Adrienne brings extensive experience in advising governing boards and management, managing outside counsel, overseeing complex multiparty litigation and transactions as well as working with a large variety of governmental agencies, financial institutions, universities and public/private sector entities.

Adrienne holds a B.A. from UCLA, a J.D. from Loyola Law School, Los Angeles and lives in Burlingame with her husband and two daughters.
